

Long Live the 37th Anniversary of the Day of Heroism!*

Peru People's Movement

June 19, 2023

On June 19th, communists and revolutionaries in Peru and around the world celebrate this day for the great Victory achieved 37 years ago by the prisoners of war of the Communist Party of Peru. They rebelled in defense of the revolution and their lives against the plans of the reactionary forces to annihilate them and deal a decisive blow to the people's war. The monstrous and infamous genocide mandated by the fascist García Pérez crashed against the unwavering, fierce resistance of comrades, fighters, and children of the masses who upheld ideology, courage, and heroism displayed boldly in a blazing war challenge, embodying the monumental trilogy of the luminous combat trenches of El Frontón, Lurigancho, and Callao. This historic milestone proclaims more and more the greatness of the Day of Heroism, conquering a great political, military, and moral victory for the Communist Party of Peru, for the class, for the Peruvian people, and the peoples of the world. This historic milestone is celebrated in Peru and worldwide. Thus, the heroes continue to win battles and serve the revolution. The proletariat and the peoples of the world always hold them in great respect and owe them the obligation to continue the task in which they were engaged, firmly subject to the Leadership of Chairman Gonzalo and his all-powerful thought, the center of party unification and the guarantee of victory that leads us to communism.

On this solemn occasion, we salute the International Communist League and our invincible and victorious people's war, as well as the current people's wars, which continue their invincible march against all odds, such as the people's wars in India, Turkey, and the Philippines. These people's wars show the path to follow for those yet to come, serving the world revolution and persisting in upholding, defending, and applying Marxism-Leninism-Maoism, principally Maoism. These people's wars are the shining beacon for the current armed struggles of liberation and many others waged by the international proletariat and the peoples of the world to sweep imperialism and reaction from the face of the Earth.

This occasion is also opportune to once again expose, crush, and sweep away the right opportunist revisionist and capitulationist line (ROL) in Peru, as the head of the new revisionism on a global level, which denies the semi-colonial and semi-feudal character of Third World countries. They claim that these countries have ceased to be so due to the "neoliberalism" implemented since the early 1990s and, in the case of Peru, they argue that the war of the people has destroyed the semi-feudal relations, leading Peru to become a dependent capitalist country, stating that "the current struggle is for democratic rights, a new constitution, and sovereignty." These renegades deny the principles established by Maoism and Gonzalo Thought, which state that as long as the democratic revolution is not carried out with the seizure of power throughout the country, the domination of imperialism, bureaucratic capitalism, and semi-feudalism will not be eradicated. In Peru, where reaction has restored the old power, reinstated the old relations of production, and their corresponding superstructure, i.e., semi-feudalism, persists. Therefore, the character of Peruvian society remains semi-colonial and semi-feudal, with bureaucratic capitalism developing upon it. The new revisionism denies the developing revolutionary situation on an international level. Thus, the ROL denies revolution as the main tendency, denies the new great wave of world revolution, denies the strategic offensive of revolution, denies the principal contradiction, denies the democratic revolution, denies the land problem in Third World countries, and consequently denies the world proletarian revolution. They are counterrevolutionary renegades, anti-Maoist, and anti-Gonzalo Thought. Since 1993 until the present, the ROL has served all the successive governments of the old Peruvian state.

Our heroes summon us, crushing the reaction and revisionism, to accomplish the general reorganization of the Party, which will signify a great victory for the Party in all its dimensions, primarily in the development of the people's war. May its unextinguishable flame burn again uncontrollably, threateningly, spreading in fiery flames everywhere, achieving a quantitative increase, to make a qualitative leap, definitively surpassing the turning point and inflection, finally emerging from the hiding place to culminate the democratic revolution with the seizure of power throughout the country, which is the central task of the revolution, supported by our own armed hands against the desires of national and international reaction and their opportunist and revisionist servants. Once the democratic revolution is completed, we will immediately and without any interruption proceed to develop the ongoing socialist revolution towards the golden communism, which we will embrace together with all of humanity. Long live the Communist Party of Peru!
